A look at my AP US History textbook, "The American Pageant ...

I still remember that info box in American Pageant when I took AP US History back in 1986. It blew my mind to realize that these 18th century conflicts had a global scope. It was a valuable perspective for my 16-year-old self. For an American history class, it's good to keep in mind that what we call the "French and Indian War" had ramifications around the world. I think the list is justified.
