The collection of the entire Battlestar Galactica series in one box is in fact all of previously released seasons in their original packaging and then housed into a box. The only thing I could criticize is that they could have made a new package to house all of the discs and somehow make the size smaller.

This book was exactly what I expected; Battlestar Galactica's original series television debut. There are small differences between the book and the show but this is definitely worth reading to any SciFi fan. For fans of the original series this is a trip down memory lane and a return to our youth.
