What to do if your dog goes missing | Cesar's Way

If your dog has decided to go on an off-leash adventure, the sooner you start looking, the sooner you'll find him. The longer your dog has to go free, the larger the perimeter you're going to have to search will be. So as soon as you ascertain that the dog truly is gone (not sleeping behind the couch or hiding in the basement), it's time to set the wheels in motion.
