Introduction to Business by McGraw-Hill Education McGraw-Hill Education traces its history back to 1888 when James H. McGraw, co-founder of the company, purchased the American Journal of Railway Appliances.
He continued to add further publications, eventually establishing The McGraw Publishing Company in 1899.
His co-founder, John A. Hill, had also produced several technical and trade publications and in 1902 formed his own business, The Hill Pub

The resulting vision was to create an introduction to business curriculum that was first, and above all else, for the benefit of the student. The main question driving the team was, "How do students learn?" We do not mean, how do they memorize for tests. But rather, how can we transmit information, knowledge and understanding so each student will exit the course having a strong foundation in
