A Critical Review of John Eldredge's Wild at Heart CCW ...

John Eldredge says he does not advocate this heretical view, but we must look at the facts. On page 30, he tells of a wilderness adventure where he was in real danger from grizzly bears. As he thinks of the wildness of the situation, of the possibility and reality of death, he writes, It then occurred to me that after God made all this, he pronounced it good . . .
