From Iceland, this 100% pure wool has a tradition of quality, which began in 1896. Icelandic Wool is lighter, warmer, and more water-resistant than that found elsewhere. This is a wool that is not over-processed—One look and you know this is the real thing! This wool is easy and quick to knit, not to mention extremely versatile.

Knitting with Icelandic Wool (Knit & Crochet): Veddís ...

Knitting with Icelandic Wool is a classic book of Icelandic patterns utilizing Loppi yarn. The Loppi Sweater is a classic and one that almost every knitter has made at one time or another. One of the greatest things about a Loppi sweater is that it only has two small seams. Another great thing about it is its warmth. The book opens with the origins of Icelandic knitting and the wool industry in
