Baigent's The Jesus Papers is just another a hoax! These Bible critics and skeptics crawl out of the sewer, desperately looking for any new con angle to sell a book. These Bible critics and skeptics crawl out of the sewer, desperately looking for any new con angle to sell a book. The Jesus Papers: Exposing the Greatest Cover-Up in ...

The Jesus Papers offers a plausible explanation of events that form much of modern religious mythology. It clearly shows the central figure as a rabble-rouser Zealot with messianic aspirations. Much of monotheism can be traced back to Egyptian magic and Baigent tries to help readers discover the origins of the legends.

Establishing the political realities of the time of Jesus was most helpful, as was considering where the young Jesus was raised and trained. It was a harsh, violent, and tumultuous time. Mr. Baigent raises some interesting ideas and certainly fans the flames of papal conspiracy in the story of Jesus.
