The Making of the Wizard Of Oz, by the film historian Aljean Harmetz, is a book about the production of the 1939 film. This book was released in '77. A second book had been published the year before and I would have liked to have read both but I never got around to the earlier. This book contains over 90 great photos. To me, a large part of the book's value lies in the photo record; the book tells readers how the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer era operated although I believe it provided a bit of a
