When We Met (Fool's Gold, #13) by Susan Mallery
In When We Met, readers once again get to witness Susan Mallery work her magic on another implausible couple. Angel Whittaker and Taryn Crawford are opposites in every way. It was crazy fun watching these two weave a path toward their HEA. Strong characters, sarcastic dialogue, flawless writing, and a clever seduction plan takes Fool's Gold in a new direction.

Susan Mallery's Fool's Gold Series is one of my favorites and one I have passed on to other friends and family members who also feel the same. Susan had me rooting for Taryn and Angel all the way in When We Met. I highly recommend this book and the entire Fool's Gold Series. I'm always looking forward to the next installment. It's also great because in every new book we get to catch up with

When We Met (Fool's Gold #13) by Susan Mallery. CHAPTER ONE WE BOTH KNOW where this is going. Taryn Crawford glanced up at the man standing by her table and ignored the rush of anticipation when she saw who he was. He was tall, with broad shoulders and gray eyes. But the most compelling feature the one she would guess people pretended didn't exist was the scar on his neck. As if
